

Index

Bolded page numbers refer to terms in the glossary.

A

acidophilus, 180
acupressure, 290
acupuncture, 290
adenopathy, 290
advance directives. see medical directives advocates. see patient advocates affirmations. see positive thinking air hunger, 264. see also shortness of breath (SOB) allopathic medicine, integrated with holistic medicine, 32 aloe vera gel, for radiation burns, 96 alopecia. see hair loss (alopecia) alternative medicine, 290–291. see also complementary and alternative medicine (CAM) American Cancer Society, provision of drivers, 233 anemia, 195, 291
    as result of chemotherapy, 54–55
    symptom management, 183, 187
anesthesia, effects, 270
antibacterial toothpaste and mouthwash, 196 antibiotics
    IV treatments if neutropenic, 180
    no improvement with, 56 on and off pattern, 242–243, 250 successful treatment with, 74–75 antibodies, monoclonal, 108 anticipatory emesis, 177–178, 291

anticipatory grief, 251, 264
anti-depressants rejected, 254 antiemetic medications, 178, 291 antifungal medication, and respiratory failure, 57, 63 appreciation. see gratitude Arizona
    description of oncology clinic, 99
    Grand Canyon trips, 69–72, 91 wintering in, 92–93
aspergillosis, 291
aspiration, 291
authenticity, 117, 125–126
autologous bone marrow transplantation, 44–45, 46, 291

B

backpack of supplies. see supplies balance, insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 127–128 bedsheets, extra, 200
benign tumors, 291
biomarkers, 304
biopsies, 41, 169–170, 173
    defined, 291
    lung biopsy rejected, 57
bladder, retraining, 255
blood cell counts. see blood counts
blood counts
    blood cell counts, 291
    and cancer treatment, 65, 179–180 chart for monitoring, 202

- and chemotherapy, 72–73
  - hospitalization tips, 193–197
  - blood draw tips, 166–168, 173
  - blood transfusions, 292
    - for anemia, 183
    - for chemotherapy side effects, 54–55
    - confirming blood type, 197
    - if hematocrit below thirty, 65, 195
  - body. see also mind/body/spirit approach; physical health
    - chemical responses to emotions, 144–145
    - listening to its intelligence, 123
  - Body Reflexology*, 179
  - bone marrow, 292
    - biopsies, 41, 169–170, 173, 292
    - metastases, 292
    - transplantation, 44–45, 46, 292
  - bone scans, 292
  - boundaries
    - between challenger and caregiver, 229
    - insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 125, 127–128
    - for visitors, 196, 200, 218, 221
  - brain damage after near-death experience, 46–47
  - breathing when anxious or fearful, 127
  - bronchoscopy, 57, 292
  - Buddhist monks visit, 253
  - burns from radiation therapy, 95–97, 177
- C
- CAM. see complementary and alternative medicine (CAM)
  - cancer, 292–293
  - cancer challengers, 293
    - identity stages, 27–33
    - vs. survivors, 26–27
  - cancer diagnosis
    - emotions following, 139–141
    - medical questions following, 140
  - cancer dry mouth, 196
  - cancer identity stages. see identity stages; survivor identity stage; thriver identity stage; victim identity stage
  - The Cancer Pain Initiative, 181
  - candidiasis. see thrush
  - Capossela, Cappy, organizing a support team, 98
  - caregivers. see also patient advocates; support
    - challenges, 93–94
    - choosing drivers, 94–95
    - daily schedule, 241–242
    - and the dying journey, 255
    - giving support to, 218–219, 220–222, 242–247
    - insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 124–125
    - putting challenger’s needs first, 229–230, 232–234, 243–245
    - transition from primary caregiver, 247–251
  - Carter, Mildred, Body Reflexology, 179
  - catheters. see also central line
    - retraining bladder to work without, 255
  - CBC (complete blood count). see blood counts
  - celebration of Deb’s life, 261–262
  - cellulitis, 293
  - central line, 166–168, 293
  - chakras, 90, 293
  - checklist, supplies for emergency room or hospital visits, 201–202
  - chemobrain, 184–185, 293
  - chemotherapy, 293
    - conditions for continuing, 65–66
    - getting information on options, 230–231
    - monoclonal antibody treatment, 108
    - new regimens, 72–75, 99–100, 234–235
    - organizing a support team, 98
    - positive results, 91
    - to reduce size of spleen and cancerous nodes, 64–65
    - side effects, 54–56, 75, 100, 189–190. see also symptom management
  - chest pain, 53
  - Chopra, Deepak, 80
  - Christmas newsletter, 2006, 231
  - clinical depression. see depression
  - clinical trials (clinical studies), 293
  - COBRA (Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act), 48–49, 293
  - collagen tissue, 97
  - colloidal silver, 96, 177, 293–294
  - Colorado, 105, 107. see also home construction
  - comfort care. see symptom management
  - communication. see support
  - compassion. see also support
    - David Kenyon, compassionate hematologist, 42–46

- often missing in medical settings, 37, 41–42, 102, 109 ways medical practitioners can demonstrate, 124
- competence and medical directives, 199
- complementary and alternative medicine (CAM), 294 be sure doctor knows everything you take, 163 holistic medicine, 32
massage therapy, 83, 84, 181
for pain management, 181
for symptom management, 176
- complete blood counts (CBC). see blood counts
- complete remission, 294. see also remission
- complete response, 294
- computed tomography scan. see CT scans
- conflict resolution, 126–127
- Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA), 48–49, 293
- contrast, 169, 294
- CoQ10, 294
- creative visualization, 80–83, 89, 294
before blood work, 167
in releasing pain, 129, 181
- creativity
as medicine, 84–85
and personal wellness, 87–90, 117–118
supportive activities, 149, 150–151, 153, 155
- crying, 210, 216, 254, 266
- CT scans, 294
defined, 41–42
oncologist’s misleading report, 234–235
tips, 168–169, 173
- curing
vs. healing, 25–26, 162
not necessarily the goal in cancer, 117, 118
- D
- daily living tasks. see also living arrangements caregiver performing, 232 no energy for, 28–29
performing personal and household activities, 30, 220
- daily schedule for caregivers, 241
- Dalai Lama, finding peace within, 60
- Dana-Farber Cancer Institute study, 236–238
- death
appearance of dying, 242–243, 245, 249 booklet on dying experience, 255 concern about effects on others, 126 Deb’s last days, 255–260 of Diana’s father from cancer, 269–270 of friend, 103–105
learning not to fear, 118 predicted by six doctors, 59 preparation by discussing last wishes, 56–57, 58
- decision-making tool for doctor selection, 109–111
- decisions, Deb no longer able make all by herself, 249–250
- dental treatment to prevent infections, 184, 197
- depression, 28–29, 49–51, 72–73
- disabilities, being careful not to judge, 71–72
- doctors
changing oncologists, 108–112 finding an oncologist or hematologist, 92–93, 105–106, 122, 157–159 first meeting guidelines, 159–162, 172–173 need for compassion by medical practitioners, 37, 41–42, 102, 109 new primary physician, 231
second opinions, 162–163
- dose-dense chemotherapy, 295
- dose-rate, 295
- dreams, releasing Deb during sleep, 256, 258
- driver help from American Cancer Society, 233
- drugs. see medications
- Durable Medical Power of Attorney. see Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care
- Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care, 295
encourage completion of, 219
giving to new doctors, 106, 161, 173
hospitalization tips, 190, 198–199
to support loved ones, 221
- dyspnea. see shortness of breath (SOB)

E

edema, 295
 Eden, Donna, 90
 emergency room. see also hospitalization tips access determined by Deb, 65 supplies for emergency room or hospital visits, 189–190, 201–202 emesis, 295. see also nausea and vomiting emotional body, 126
 emotions
     doctors need to be trained to handle, 237–238 emotional fatigue, 182 expressing openly, 85, 144–145 feelings regarding cancer challengers, 204–205, 214–218 after first treatment option decided, 45 following a cancer diagnosis, 139–141 of grief, 265–267
     increasing emotional strength, 253
     insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 125–127 “mind games” regarding reoccurrence, 91
     and pain, 129
     and personal wellness, 87–90
     regarding Grand Canyon trip, 70–72 regarding so many losses, 47–48, 252–254 regarding staying in nursing home, 245 relived during writing, 270–271 support to control, 74, 165
     supportive activities, 148–150, 152, 155
     during survivor stage, 30–31
     as a thriver, 31–33, 84–85
     during victim stage, 28, 49–51
 empathy and understanding. see compassion empowerment
     lessons for living with medically incurable cancer, 116–118 during medical appointments, 162–166, 174–175 during medical tests, 166–171, 173–174 needed from doctors, 237
     in nursing home, 248–251
     in selecting doctors, 122, 157–163, 172–173

end-of-life care
     end-of-life dialogue, 237–238 signing up for hospice, 235–236 endoscopy, 295
 energy
     assessing before acting, 271
     energy follows thought, 82 Energy Medicine, 90 not recovered after 2005 treatments, 230 returning after cancer treatments stopped, 182
     during survivor stage, 30–31
     during victim stage, 28–29
 energy testing, and positive thoughts, 120 exercise, 88

F

family. see also support discussion of last wishes, 56–57, 58 hardships, 48
     presence during hospice care, 241–243 sister’s awareness of critical points, 59 fasting, 88
 fatigue, 182, 187, 295
 fear. see emotions
 feelings. see emotions fever, 179–180, 186–187, 189–190 finances
     disability benefits, 47–49
     fundraising for Grand Canyon trip, 69–70 for hospice care and/or nursing home, 235, 246, 252 for psychotherapy, 80
 Five Wishes. see Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care; medical directives fluid removed from lungs, 56, 234 follicular mixed cell lymphoma, 45, 295 foods, avoiding certain ones during treatment, 178, 196 forgiveness for self and others, 59–60, 117, 119–120, 123 friends. see relationships; support funeral. see celebration of Deb’s life fungal infections, 180, 196

G
 Gawain, Shakti, 81
 G-CSF, 56, 65, 74, 180, 295
 germ masks, 189–190
 Gieszl, Christine, physician’s email, 262

- goal-oriented wellness programs, 154–155
Gone from My Sight (booklet), 255 “Gone from My Sight” (poem), 260 grading of cancer cells, 295–296
 Grand Canyon trips, 69–72, 91
 granulocyte-colony stimulating factor (G-CSF). see G-CSF gratitude
   Deb’s list 17 days before she died, 271–272
   insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 125, 128–129 showing to nursing home staff, 248 grief
   counseling, 241, 246–250, 273 emotions relieved during writing, 270–271 for lost connections, 251 transformation through, 264–267 guidance for loved ones, friends and caregivers. see support guided imagery, 80–83, 89, 129, 296
 Gurgevich, Steven, 81
- H
 hair loss (alopecia), 75, 183–184, 187, 290 handwriting deteriorating, 254 healing. see also mind/body/spirit approach; personal wellness programs vs. curing, 25–26, 162
 empowerment, 116–118
 as a full-time job, 123 holistic chiropractor found, 101 ideology of, 87–88
 inner healing of dying friend, 103–104 Linda Page’s Healthy Healing, 96–97 with natural healing modalities, 123 and spirituality in living with cancer, 118–120
 during survivor stage, 30–31 technique combining visualization, prayer and meditation, 89 hematocrit, 55, 65, 195 hematologists, 296. see also doctors hematology, 42
 hemoglobin, 296
 high-dose chemotherapy, 296 holistic medicine, integrated with allopathic medicine, 32 home construction, 107, 228–229, 242, 251–252 visit to new house, 253 home health agency, working with, 68–69 homeopathic medicine (homeopathy), 178–179, 296 honesty with self and others, 121 hospice, 239–245, 273, 296 and grief support, 265–267 nursing home care conference, 257 provisions, 235–236
   and quality of life near death, 237
 hospitalization tips, 200, 203
   blood counts, 193–197
   confirming appropriate medical tests, 197–198 double-checking medications and blood type, 197 listing medical information, 192–193, 201–202 medical directives and power of attorney, 198–199 supplies to pack, 189–191 humor and laughter, 123 hygiene very important when blood counts low, 196
- I
 “I Can Cope” cancer class, 84
 “I Can Endure” (poem), 67 identity stages, 27–34, 296. see also survivor identity stage; thriver identity stage; victim identity stage also apply to caregivers, 251 choosing how to live, 122
 table, 33
 “I’m Done with Treatment” (poem), 114 imagery, 297. see also guided imagery immune system, 297. see also neutrophils; white blood cells (WBC) compromised by chemotherapy, 54–56, 189–190 support as symptom management, 176–177 supported by positive inner dialogue, 80, 121 Vitamin C for, 97
 indolent lymphoma, 297
 infections, 179–180, 186–187, 189–190, 196 information. see medical information
 insights for living with medically incurable cancer actively participating in one’s own journey, 121–123 balance and boundaries, 127–128 controlling thoughts, 120–121

emotions, 125–127
 gratitude and appreciation, 128–129 lessons for empowerment, 116–118 releasing pain, 129
 self-love, 129–130
 spirituality, 118–120
 summary, 130
 support, 124–125
 inspirational reading and writing, accessing the spiritual dimension, 147
 insurance, 48–49. see also finances intensive care unit, experiences in 1992, 57–63
 interconnectedness of all living things, 119, 132–134
     reverence for, 147
 interdependence, 124
 interviewing a new doctor, 159–162 intravenous injections (IVs), 167 antibiotics if neutropenic, 180 contrast for CT scans, 169
     double-checking medications, 197
     IV-IG, 297
 intubation, 57, 297
 IVs. see intravenous injections (IVs)

J
 journals, medical. see medical journals

K
 Karnes, Barbara, Gone from My Sight, 255 Kenyon, David, 42–46, 53–54, 65–66, 92 kidney cancer surgery, 263–264, 270–271 kidney failure, 255–256 kinesiology. see energy testing, and positive thoughts

L
 last outing, 255
 leg problems, 113, 231, 235, 255
 lessons for living with cancer. see insights for living with medically incurable
     cancer
 living arrangements
     construction of new home begun, 228–229
     hospice care, 239–245
     moving into nursing home, 245–251
     preparing to move into new house, 253
 living wills. see medical directives losses, 47–48, 123, 252–254. see also grief love. see self-love

low-grade lymphoma. see indolent lymphoma
 lung tap. see thoracentesis (lung tap) lungs, 56, 57, 234
 lymph glands. see lymph nodes lymph nodes, 297
     surgery, 35, 38
 lymphangiogram, 42–43, 297
 lymphatic system, 297
 lymphedema, 231
 lymphoma. see also Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma (NHL)
     defined, 45, 297–298
     malignant mass in armpit, 93, 95 many types and prognoses, 209 mass in groin, 112, 113
     nausea and vomiting from spread of, 64 reaction to diagnosis, 38–39 spread throughout body, 230 symptoms, 53, 107

M
 magnetic resonance imaging (MRI), 298 magnetic therapy, 181
 “make your needs known” (MYNK), 168–169, 173, 200, 221, 234, 298. see also responsibility “make-a-wish” project personalized, 69–72
 malignant tumors, 298
 marijuana, 178, 181, 298
 masks, germ, 189–190
 massage therapy, 83, 84, 181
 medical appointments
     empowerment during, 162–166, 174–175
     supplies for, 73, 99–100, 165–166, 174–175
 medical directives, 298
     encourage completion of, 219
     Five Wishes, 122, 261–262, 277–289, 295
     giving to new doctors, 106, 161, 173
     hospitalization tips, 190, 198–199
     and quality of life near death, 237
     to support loved ones, 221
 medical information, 163, 192–193, 201–202
 medical journals, 73, 163–164, 174, 191 continued after book writing discontinued, 227
     notebook for all caregivers, 242

- oncologist's report of CT scan, 234 medical tests. see also biopsies; CT scans;
 lymphangiogram
 blood counts, 65, 72–73, 193–197
 blood draws, 166–168, 173
 bronchoscopy, 57
 general guidelines, 170–171, 174
 hospitalization tips, 197–198
 medications. see also antibiotics
 anti-depressants rejected, 254
 Deb's attempts to take her own, 243–244
 double-checking medications, 197 information to prevent adverse reactions, 163
 for pain, 180–181, 187, 240 schedule, 241–242
 meditation, 33, 85, 89, 117, 146, 273, 304
 Mending Hearts Support Group, 265 mental healing. see also mind/body/spirit approach
 positive thinking, 120–121, 185–186, 188, 271–272
 supportive activities, 150–152, 155
 mental side effects
 chemobrain, 184–185
 fatigue, 182, 188
 metastasize, 298
 Miller, George L., “Was that You at the Door?” (poem), 268–269
 mind-body interactions, 80–83 mind/body/spirit approach. see also insights for living with medically incurable cancer
 and personal wellness programs, 87–90, 148–156
 and quest for healing, 128, 143–147
 in releasing pain, 129
 shared with others, 103–105 techniques used in hospital, 195
 mindfulness relaxation, 298 miracles, 62–63, 118, 119
 monoclonal antibody treatment, 108, 230 mouth sores, 184, 187, 196
 MRI. see magnetic resonance imaging
 (MRI)
 music
 accessing the spiritual dimension, 146–147
 for celebration of Deb's life, 261–262
 and healing, 127, 129
 for hospitalization, 190–191
 MYNK. see “make your needs known”
 (MYNK)
- N
 National Cancer Institute (NCI), 299 nature, accessing the spiritual dimension, 147. see also interconnectedness of all living things
 nausea and vomiting
 symptom management, 177–179, 186
 as symptoms of enlarged spleen and spread of lymphoma, 64
 near-death experience, 299 brain damage, 46–47
 omitted from hospital records, 44 reaction of hospital staff, 35–37 tunnel of light, 61–62
 needs, identifying, 122–123, 127, 148–
 156. see also “make your needs known”
 (MYNK)
 neuropathy, 299
 neuropeptides, 299
 neutropenia, 55, 56, 58–63, 74, 179–180, 299 neutrophils, 299
 count rising but condition
 deteriorating, 58
 to help fight infections, 55, 194
 so low as to require isolation room, 74
 NHL. see Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma
 (NHL)
 Niebuhr, Reinhold, on forgiveness, 60
 Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma (NHL), 297–298, 299. see also lymphoma first oncology visit, 39–42
 monoclonal antibody treatment, 108
 prognosis, 43
 progression and treatment, 45–46 numbing cream for skin over port, 167 nursing home
 arrangements, 245–251
 care conference, 257
 change of rooms, 253–254 medical assistance approved, 252
 research, 245
 nurture of all phases of one's life, 87–90
- O
 observation. see watchful waiting oncologists, 300. see also doctors failing patients, 234–235, 236–238
 oncology clinic in Arizona, description, 99

oneness. see interconnectedness of all living things opportunities, taking advantage of, 123 oxygen support, 231, 234, 257, 258, 264, 270

P

Page, Linda, guide to self-healing, 96–97
 pain
     insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 129
     symptom management, 84, 180–181, 187, 240
     after thoracoscopy, 235 visualization and imagery techniques to alleviate, 81–82 palliative care. see symptom management palpation, 55–56, 300
 participation. see empowerment; responsibility partnership with medical professionals, 195 pathologists, 300
 pathology report, 300
 patient advocates, 165, 174, 232, 300 peripheral neuropathy, 299 personal growth work and identity stages, 122 personal wellness programs creating your own goal-oriented program, 154–155 creating your own overall plan, 148–153 Deb’s, 88–90
     getting back on track, 229–230 importance of spirituality in, 145–147
     meditation, 273
     and responsibility as a thriver, 94
     summary, 156
 perspiration from plastic mattress liner, 200 pesticides, exposure as a cause of lymphoma, 40 PET scans, 300
 photographs, 76–78, 86, 136, 223, 252 Deb’s woodcarving and beading, 85 obituary picture in nurses’ break rooms, 264 physical health
     not necessary to be a thriver, 86
     and personal wellness, 87–90
     supportive activities, 148–150, 152, 155

physicians. see doctors placebo, creative visualization techniques as, 83 platelets, 55, 66, 195, 300
 pleural effusion, 300
     fluid in lungs, 56, 234
 pleurisy, 53
 poems
     for celebration of Deb’s life, 261
     as creative endeavor, 90
     “Gone from My Sight”, 260
     “I Can Endure”, 67
     “I’m Done with Treatment”, 114
     “Reflective Eyes of the Sea”, 131
     “Stand with Oneness”, 135
     “Together We Can Overcome”, 78
     “Was that You at the Door?”, 268–269 “Watch and Wait”, 52
 port. see central line
 positive thinking, 120–121, 185–186, 188, 271–272
 positron emission tomography (PET), 107, 108 power of attorney, 241, 300
 Power of Attorney for Health Care. see Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care prayer, 33, 59–61, 146
 precancerous conditions, 301 present, living in the, 120 priorities, creating, 122 proactive stance. see responsibility prognosis, 43, 174, 209, 301 discussing with your doctor, 162–163 progressive disease, 301 prostate cancer patient, encounter with, 101–102 psychotherapy, 301
     for blaming self and resenting others, 117 grief counseling, 241, 246–250 and the survivor identity stage, 30–31, 79–80, 230–231 therapist found in Arizona, 101 therapist included in meeting with doctor, 65 and the thriver identity stage, 32, 84, 88 pulse-ox, 301

Q

quality of life, 230, 301
     and end-of-life dialogue, 236–238

- focus after no longer treating cancer, 251 and hospice, 235–236
 questions
   to ask about medical tests, 170 for doctors, 158, 159, 172–173 following cancer diagnosis, 140
- R
- radiation oncologists, 301
 radiation therapists, 301 radiation therapy, 301
   for mass in armpit, 93, 94–97
   for mass in groin, 113
   side effects, 95–97, 177
 radiologists, 301
 radiology, 302
 radiotherapy. see radiation therapy
 RBC. see red blood cells (RBC) recurrence, recurrent cancer, 302 red blood cells (RBC), 302. see also blood counts; blood transfusions “Reflective Eyes of the Sea” (poem), 131 reflexology, 179
 regimens, 302. see also chemotherapy regression, 302
 Reiki, 181
 relapse, 107–109, 227–231, 302
 relationships
   changes during Deb’s last year, 251–252 changes with move to nursing home, 247–251 death of friend, 103–105
   with doctors. see doctors effect of diagnosis on, 47–48 friendship with Diana, 95, 97 life-enhancing vs. life-draining people, 116 separating from Pat, 93–94 spiritual blood relatives, 119 relative survival rate, 302 relaxation
   exercises for pain, 181
   mindfulness relaxation, 298
   music for, 190–191
   possible after admitting fears to friends, 74 techniques, 123, 302
 remission, 302
   for 8 years, 1997–2005, 107
   not determined by statistics, 118 shortening of duration during lymphoma progression, 100
 research
   educating yourself on your kind of cancer, 163, 164, 174 regarding chemotherapy treatment options, 231 selecting doctors, 157–159 resilience, insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 116 respiratory failure, 57–63 respite care, 236, 243, 245 responsibility. see also empowerment; “make your needs known” (MYNK) for communicating needs, 221–222 for determining medical care, 38, 42, 66, 111–112, 122, 160–162, 174, 193–198 participating in one’s own journey, 121–123
   during survivor stage, 30–31
   as a thriver, 31–33, 85
 rest. see also respite care for caregivers, 232, 242, 244–247
   do not disturb signs, 248 and fatigue, 182
   and pain, 181
 restaging. see staging
 risk factors, 302
- S
- Saint-John’s-wort, 303
 second opinions, 162–163, 174
 self-acceptance, 129–130 self-care, 128, 130, 271. see also personal wellness programs self-esteem lowered after relapse, 229 self-exploration, 117, 119
 self-love
   insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 116, 129–130
   mirroring to others, 133
 sepsis, 303
 serum tumor marker test, 303 Share the Care, 98
 sharing lessons with others, 98, 124–125, 130 shortness of breath (SOB), 303 due to congestion in lungs, 56–57, 74, 234 after exertion, 230

- side effects, 303. see also symptom management books and websites about controlling, 176, 177, 178–179, 181, 185, 235 of cancer treatment, 84, 186–188 of chemotherapy, 54–56, 75, 100, 189–190 of radiation, 95–97, 177
 of traditional pain medications, 181
- silver, colloidal, 96, 177, 293–294
- sleep. see relaxation; rest
- smells, avoiding strong, 178, 200
- SOB. see shortness of breath (SOB)
- Social Security, disability benefits, 49
- solid tumors, 303
- spirituality. see also mind/body/spirit approach importance in personal wellness programs, 145–147 insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 118–120
 and personal wellness, 87–90 practices during survivor stage, 30 practices given up during victim stage, 29 prayer and forgiveness in ICU, 59–62 spiritual and bereavement counselor, 241, 253–254, 273 spiritual fatigue, 182
 spiritual growth work, 117
 supportive activities, 148, 150–151, 153, 155
 talking to dying loved ones in mind or dreams, 256, 258, 269–270 thriving, 31–33
- spleen, 303
 continual pain, 112
 enlargement, 53, 55–56, 64 improved by chemotherapy, 75 visualization and imagery techniques, 81–82
- stages. see identity stages
- “The Stages of Cancer<sup>3</sup>/Affliction to Graduation”, 115
- staging, 303
- “Stand with Oneness” (poem), 135
- stress management. see also empowerment; responsibility; symptom management snorkeling example, 193
- supplies
 for emergency room or hospital visits, 189–191, 201–202 for medical appointments, 73, 99–100, 165–166, 174–175
- support. see also caregivers; grief asking for, 121, 122, 144, 229–230, 271
 for caregivers, 218–219, 220–222, 232–234, 242–247
 for emotional needs as well as physical, 243–244 giving and receiving, 127–128, 132–134, 204–205 giving to others, and spiritual dimension, 147
 hospice care, 239–245
 insights for living with medically incurable cancer, 123, 124–125 non-supportive phrases and questions, 208–215 supportive alternatives to non-supportive phrases, 209–214 supportive phrases and questions, 205–208, 222–224 ways a cancer challenger can support others, 220–222 ways to support a cancer challenger, 215–220, 247–250
- support groups, 32, 141–142, 303 and chemobrain, 185
 for grief, 265–266, 271
 “I Can Cope” cancer class, 84
 for loved ones and caregivers, 222
 organizing a support team, 98, 122, 233
 thriver identity stage, 84, 88
 supportive care. see symptom management surrendering to God’s will, 60–63 survivor identity stage, 29–31, 251 aided by psychotherapy, 79–80, 230–231 creative visualization and guided imagery, 80–83
 “I Can Cope” cancer class, 84
- survivors vs. challengers, 26–27
- symptom management, 304
 anemia, 183, 187
 books and websites about, 176, 177, 178–179, 181, 185, 235
 fatigue, 182, 187
 fever and infections, 179–180, 186–187 hair loss, 183–184, 187 immune system support, 176–177 mental effects, 184–185, 188
 mouth sores, 184, 187

- nausea and vomiting, 177–179, 186
 pain, 84, 180–181, 187, 240
- T
- tape recording appointments, 164
 thoracentesis (lung tap), 56, 234, 304 thoracoscopy, 234, 304
 thriver identity stage, 30–33, 251
   achieved by becoming an active participant in healing journey, 122 integrating learnings, 84–90 not only applicable to cancer, 34 thrombocytes. see platelets thrombocytopenia, 304
 thrush, 196, 304
 “Together We Can Overcome” (poem), 78
 touch, 218, 249. see also massage therapy touchstones in grief journey, 265 Transcendental Meditation (TM), 89, 304 travel
   Arizona trips, 69–72, 91, 92–93 summer of 1997, 100–101
   while receiving cancer treatment, 171, 174 tumor markers, 304. see also serum tumor marker test
 tunnel of light, 61–62
- U
- ulcerations, 249
 uncertainty, dealing with, 123
Understanding Your Grief, 265
- V
- valerian, 181, 304–305
 valuing individuality and uniqueness of self and others, 116, 132–134
 Van Dyke, Henry, “Gone from My Sight” (poem), 260
 veins, preparing for blood work, 167 ventilator, 57–63, 305
 victim identity stage, 28–29, 49–51, 230–231, 251
 visits, 218–219
   asking visitors to leave when privacy needed, 200
   avoiding when blood counts low, 196
   by Buddhist monks, 253
   to new house, 253
   to nursing home, 246–250
 visualization. see creative visualization;
   guided imagery
- Vitamin C for new collagen tissue and immune system strengthening, 97 Vitamin E oil for radiation burns, 96 voice techniques, accessing the spiritual dimension, 147
 vomiting, symptom management, 177–179, 186
- W
- Warnock, Sheila, organizing a support team, 98
 “Was that You at the Door?” (poem), 268–269
 “Watch and Wait” (poem), 52
 watch-and-wait approach, 45–46, 105, 112 watchful waiting, 305. see also watch-and-wait approach
 water
   for flushing IV contrast out of body, 169 importance of during chemotherapy, 99–100
 WBC. see white blood cells (WBC) Weber, Tammy, Body Reflexology, 179 wellness. see personal wellness programs white blood cells (WBC), 55, 179–180, 194, 305. see also neutrophils
 white willow bark, 181
 Wolfelt, Alan D., Understanding Your Grief, 265
- Y
- yoga, 177